6. Estate Planning

Do you, your spouse and your adult children all have Wills?

Yes No

If no, would you like to know why we believe having a Will, even if just a very basic Will, is so important and why your family will be so grateful for you having one if you were to pass away (however unexpected that may be)?

Yes No Thanks

Where you do all have Wills we recommend they are due for review (and possible updating or replacing) if one or more of the following apply to you;

- Your marital status has changed (including de facto relationships)
- You have had a child (first or otherwise)
- You have inherited a substantial sum of assets
- Your superannuation has substantially increased
- It has been 5 years since your Will was created or reviewed

Do you, your spouse and your adult children all have Enduring Powers of Attorney (EPA's)?

Yes No

If no, would you like to know why we believe having an EPA is also so important and why you and your family will be so grateful for you having one if you were to lose your capacity to make decisions about your own financial affairs (again, however unexpected that may be).

Yes No Thanks

Please return this form to us and we will contact you to arrange a time to meet and discuss your requirements.
